11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 BANK OF AMERICA N.A.,

14 Defendant.

CASE NO. C11-1656 MJP

MINUTE ORDER

15
16 The following Minute Order is made by direction of the Court, the Honorable Marsha J.
17 Pechman, United States District Judge:

18 Having reviewed the parties' "Stipulation to File Exhibits in support of Defendant's
19 Motion for Partial Summary Judgment Under Seal" (Dkt. No. 75), the Court notes that the only
20 justification for the sealing request cited in the stipulation is "the CONFIDENTIAL designation
21 of these documents and the entry of the Court's Protective Order." Id., p. 2. The parties are
22 referred to CR 5(g)(4), which states

23 A motion or stipulation to seal shall provide... a clear statement of the facts
24 justifying sealing and overcoming the strong presumption in favor of public access.

1 The Court does not find that the grounds stated in the stipulation constitute “a clear
2 statement of the facts justifying sealing” and DENIES the request on that basis. The denial is
3 without prejudice to renew the request (and need not resubmit the documents which they seek to 4 seal).

6 The clerk is ordered to provide copies of this order to all counsel.

7 Filed this _23rd_ day of May, 2012.
